PASTOR'S MESSAGE | Promoting a True Understanding of Freedom.

For the sake of those who missed it, I am repeating the first part of my message from last Sunday.

Independence Day is July 4. We remember the freedom that our nation enjoyed as it made a transition from being a colony to becoming a country. Some persons did not share in this freedom in 1776, but these principles caused our beloved country to realize that this state of affairs could not continue. We are grateful for those who are defending our freedom, including members of our armed services and humanitarian organizations. Please join me in saying a prayer for: their safety; for their family and friends who are anxious about their safety; for a swift and just resolution to all conflicts; and for an end to terrorism.

Religious liberty is one of the freedoms that we enjoy according to the First Amendment of the Constitution. An enduring constitutional debate is the definition of "separation of Church and State." It will not be settled in this annual column. However, I propose that it does not mean silencing the voice of people of faith in public discourse. People of faith have made invaluable contributions to our nation and world.

Consider the role of the Catholic Church in the U.S.A. Imagine if our parochial, social service, educational, health care, and charitable ministries disappeared tomorrow. Next to the government (federal, state, and local), the second largest institution that provides services to people in need are ministries of the Catholic Church. Consider the role of faith communities in the Civil Rights Movement throughout the 20th century which enabled citizens of African descent to vote, enjoy public accommodations like other citizens, etc.

Catholic Social Teaching is the means by which we promote the dignity of each person as the foundation for promoting the common good of society and the well-being of all. This includes vulnerable persons such as the unborn child, immigrants, workers, and those who are impoverished.

The present national crisis is an episode in the ongoing struggle to overcome racism and its effects in our relationships, communities, and institutions. During his General Audience on June 3, 2020, Pope Francis said "... My friends, we cannot tolerate or turn a blind eye to racism and exclusion in any form and yet claim to defend the sacredness of every human life...."

On June 15, 2020, the Catholic Bishops of Maryland issued a letter on promoting racial justice entitled, Building Bridges of Understanding and Hope. They also write about this pro-life issue.

The Pastor's Message continues on the next page.

We must recognize that all of us share the same human nature and dignity because we are all created in the image and likeness of God; this is why human life is sacred. We call all people of good will to prayer to root out any hatred and animosity that has taken hold in one's own heart. Inspired by Jesus' command to "love one another as I love you" (John 15:12), we must seek to know and understand one another and to work to break down barriers through listening, prayer and a commitment to change hearts and minds (Building Bridges of Understanding and Hope, June 15, 2020; https://www.mdcatholic.org/racial\_justice\_letter).

Catholic Social Teaching principles are derived from the Gospel; explained in papal, conciliar, and episcopal statements; and demonstrated by our works of mercy. The Second Vatican Council reiterated that part of our baptismal vocation is to transform and sanctify our communities by the practice of our Faith (Lumen Gentium #11 and following). Many of these principles are part of the related to the Natural Moral Law, which applies to every person, whether or not they claim a religious affiliation. May God help us to contribute to the common good of our beloved country and the world.

THIS PANDEMIC IS NOT GOING ON VACATION. WE MUST REMAIN VIGILANT.

This virus is not taking a summer vacation. We cannot take a vacation from mitigating its spread, Let us continue to care about each other. Wearing a mask and practicing social distancing are not political actions. We are showing that we care about others. Being self-centered does not build a community.

Thank you for the ways in which you are striving to love God wholeheartedly. This is the context in which we love ourselves and others appropriately. It inspires me to persevere in doing the same.

MARYLAND CATHOLIC BISHOPS ISSUE LETTER ON RACIAL JUSTICE

The Catholic Bishops of Maryland (from the Archdiocese of Baltimore, the Archdiocese of Washington, and the Diocese of Wilmington) have issued a letter on racial justice. It is entitled, "Building Bridges of Understanding and Hope." You can read it on the website of the Maryland Catholic Conference (https://www.mdcatholic.org/racial\_justice\_letter).

LET US CONTINUE TO PRAY FOR ONE ANOTHER

Let us pray for one another. Please continue to reach out to each other to see how others are doing. Know that the staff and I are here to serve you.

May the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you always!

Father Raymond Harris

REFLECTION ON THE SUNDAY GOSPEL READING

Read Matthew 11:25-30. “[Jesus said to His disciples,] ‘Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves’” (vv. 28-29). To say that Jesus is “meek” does not mean that He is weak. Meekness is gentle strength. Jesus, the Son of God who shares in our humanity in all things but sin, knows who He is and what He has come on the earth to do. He came to give humanity a tangible understanding of God's love and mercy. He came to confront sin and death and conquers them for our sake. When we bear His yoke, it is a “good fit” for us. His way of life is an experience of everlasting love, mercy, and freedom. How we serve as witnesses to the Lord Jesus Christ in these ways?

Catechism of the Catholic Church #458: “The Word became flesh so that thus we might know God's love: ‘In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him.’ ‘For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.’”

Catechism of the Catholic Church #459: “The Word became flesh to be our model of holiness: ‘Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me.’ ‘I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but by me.’ On the mountain of the Transfiguration, the Father commands: ‘Listen to him!’ Jesus is the model for the Beatitudes and the norm of the new law: ‘Love one another as I have loved you.’ This love implies an effective offering of oneself, after his example.”

NEWS – UPDATES

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE TREES ON CAMPUS?

A report from Dennis Kast, Business and Facilities Manager: The trees along the entrance driveway have been cutdown due to the Emerald Ash Borer. This insect infects the tree that causes it to die. The trees on the driveway ranged from 90% dead to 50% dead. An Arborist was consulted, and his recommendation was to remove the trees. There was a safety consideration for their removal. Ash trees become very brittle when dead. A falling tree could cause great harm to a passerby. The next step is to grind the stumps, remove the grindings, cover the holes with topsoil, and reseed.
