PASTOR'S MESSAGE | Parish Mission Continues During a Pandemic

Christ is risen! Truly He is risen! As we conclude about seven weeks of quarantine, I thank you for continuing to practice your faith under the circumstances. This pandemic has directly affected our parish community. Please join me in praying for patients and their loved ones; and for those who are serving to protect us, providing medical care, and providing other necessary services.

Many thanks to those who are regularly contributing to the work of the Lord through prayer, participating in live-stream and Zoom events, and contributing to the offertory.

Once again, I am grateful to the staff for their hard work in serving the Lord and you. Please see the events that we have below.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

On the Fourth Sunday of Easter, we hear a portion of the Gospel of John in which the Lord teaches that He is the Good Shepherd. The universal Church is invited to pray for a generous response from those who are being called to the priesthood, the diaconate, and the consecrated religious life. Please join me in offering prayer, including for those who are being called from the Archdiocese of Baltimore and Holy Family Parish. We pray for parishioner, Bill Arther, a candidate for the diaconate.

Join me in prayer during Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction on Sunday, May 3 at 3 PM via Facebook Live. No Facebook account? No problem! Go to the direct link (<https://www.fb.com/HFCRandallstown/live>).

PARISH RECEIVES LOAN TO HELP WITH SALARIES, BENEFITS, & UTILITIES

I praise God as I announce that through The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, our parish corporation has received an Small Business Administration loan of $55,400 from M & T Bank. It will be used to cover salaries, benefits, and help with utilities for the next two months. Following through on using the loan for these purposes will lead to the loan becoming a grant.

I thank Dennis Kast, Business and Facilities Manager, for his hard work on this project. I thank the assistance of the Archdiocese of Baltimore.

We still need those who can contribute to the weekly offertory to do so.

Please offer a prayer of thanksgiving to God for this development. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

ARCHDIOCESE OF BALTIMORE PLANNING FOR REOPENING

According to Archdiocese of Baltimore guidance issued on Saturday: “The Archdiocese is working with the dioceses in Delaware, Virginia, Washington, D.C., and West Virginia to create one common plan for reopening the Church, in accordance with the civil guidance in those jurisdictions. The plan will include multiple phases to reflect the reality that reopening must be gradual to ensure the safety of everyone, given that there will continue to be risks posed by the virus until there is a vaccine.”

The Catholic Review, Archdiocese of Baltimore develops plans for reopening

<https://www.archbalt.org/archdiocese-of-baltimore-develops-plans-for-reopening/>

Let us pray for one another. Please continue to reach out to each other to see how others are doing. Know that the staff and I are here to serve you.

May the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you always!

Father Raymond Harris

EASTER SEASON SERIES | VICTORIOUS: WE ARE RISEN WITH CHRIST

Easter IV: Remaining Resolute in our Hope

Reflection on the Sunday Gospel Reading

Read John 10:1-10. Our Easter season theme is, “Victorious: We are Risen with Christ.” Through Holy Baptism we share in the victory that our Lord Jesus Christ has won over sin and death. It is not just significant for the moment of our death. It is significant during every moment of our lives, including as we live during a pandemic.

For the past two Sundays, we have considered the theological virtue of faith. Faith enables us to believe in God, accepting what He has revealed through the ministry of the Church since God is truth. Now we will consider the theological virtue of hope. Hope enables us to trust that God’s promises will be fulfilled in our lives as we cooperate with His providence.

Sheep will instinctually respond to the voice of their shepherd. Different flocks of sheep would rest together in the valleys at night. At dawn they would rise and return to their own shepherd by responding to his distinctive voice. Sheep are created by God to act upon their instincts. We are created in the image of God to act upon our intentions that are inspired by the Holy Spirit. The very life of God dwells within us, helping us to choose what is for our lasting benefit, not only for us, but for others. The Lord Jesus promises that our lives will be profitable by striving to hear and to heed with He is saying. He is the guardian of our souls and our sure guide for living.

Catechism of the Catholic Church #754: “The Church is, accordingly, a sheepfold, the sole and necessary gateway to which is Christ. It is also the flock of which God himself foretold that he would be the shepherd, and whose sheep, even though governed by human shepherds, are unfailingly nourished and led by Christ himself, the Good Shepherd and Prince of Shepherds, who gave his life for his sheep.”

EASTER MARIAN ANTIPHON

During the Easter season, we pray the Regina caeli instead of the Angelus at 6 AM (or whenever you arise), Noon, and 6 PM. The text is:

Queen of heaven, rejoice, alleluia.
For He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia.
Has risen, as he said, alleluia.
Pray for us to God, alleluia.
Rejoice and be glad, O virgin Mary, alleluia.
For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray. O God, who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of thy son, our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech thee, that through the intercession of the virgin Mary, his mother, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
