PASTOR'S MESSAGE | "Resolute in the Struggle for Justice & Peace"

SEPTEMBER 11, 2001 – IN MEMORIAM

In memory of those who died during the terrorist attacks on the USA on September 11, 2001. The majority were from the USA. We also remember victims from 57 other nations); in solidarity with their families and friends who continue to mourn. In thanksgiving for emergency personnel, members of the armed forces, relief agency workers, and members of the diplomatic corps who put themselves in harm's way to promote peace and safety.

THE STRUGGLE FOR RACIAL JUSTICE

As noted in last week's Parish Life Update, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has designated the liturgical Memorial of Saint Peter Claver (September 9) as a "Day of Prayer for Peace in our Communities." The 2020 intention asked for prayer and fasting for perseverance in the struggle to overcome racism and to promote opportunities to foster racial harmony and justice.

Saint Peter Claver lived from 1580 – 1654. From the Catalonia region in Spain, he became a Jesuit priest and served as a missionary in the nation of Colombia in South America for 38 years. . He provided for the spiritual and physical needs of Africans who were enslaved there. He impacted the lives of hundreds of thousands.

Recent events have been part of our nation's centuries-old struggle to address racial inequities and to strive for racial justice. Five years ago, in the wake of the death of Freddie Gray and subsequent civil unrest, Archbishop Lori has called for members of the Archdiocese of Baltimore to strengthen our contributions to the public square in dealing with these issues. Two pastoral reflections by Archbishop Lori:

1. "The Enduring Power of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Principles of Nonviolence"
<https://www.archbalt.org/kingpastoral/>
2. "The Journey to Racial Justice: Repentance, Healing, and Action"
<https://www.archbalt.org/racismpastoral19/>

On this Sunday, September 13, Archbishop William Lori is offering Holy Mass at Saint Peter Claver Church in Baltimore City. He will preach on the theme of racial justice. Our Archbishop has raised this issue before. I will continue to do so as well, such as during my homily this weekend.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE (continued)

We approach these issues from the perspective of being disciples of Christ, who has who are striving to be faithful to the Gospel of Christ and are striving to follow Him as members of the Church of Christ. It is part of our mission of evangelization, the preaching of the Gospel and practicing its message in our ivies.

DENNIS KAST RETIRES ON SEPTEMBER 15

After eighteen years as our Business and Facilities Manager, Dennis Kast will retire on September 15. He has also been a Holy Family parishioner since 1978. Dennis has worn many hats in this position. He was also the maintenance worker among other things. He has provided invaluable support to me. Any success that I have had in serving as your Pastor is due to many factors, including: the grace of God, your support, and the hard work of our staff and volunteers.

PERSEVERE IN PRAYER

Please join me in prayer for an end to this pandemic. May our efforts to slow its spread succeed. May those who are not cooperating with these efforts have a change of heart. May those who are providing safety, medical care, and other necessary services be protected as they serve others with integrity.

May the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you!

Father Raymond Harris

REFLECTION ON THE SUNDAY GOSPEL READING

Read Matthew 18:21-35. The strength to forgive another person from the core of our being begins with a reflection about how merciful God is toward us. Our Risen Savior bears the wounds of rejection in His glorified Body. Offering forgiveness does not excuse behavior that is destructive to ourselves, our relationships with God or others. God does not forgive us in order to excuse our sins. God encourages us to give them up. Forgiving others invites them to forsake their wrongdoing. It can free us from allowing the offense to define our existence. United to the Risen Savior, these wounds can be healed.

Catechism of the Catholic Church #2843: “Thus the Lord's words on forgiveness, the love that loves to the end, become a living reality. The parable of the merciless servant, which crowns the Lord's teaching on ecclesial communion, ends with these words: ‘So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart.’ It is there, in fact, ‘in the depths of the heart,’ that everything is bound and loosed. It is not in our power not to feel or to forget an offense; but the heart that offers itself to the Holy Spirit turns injury into compassion and purifies the memory in transforming the hurt into intercession.”
